

DR. ASHUTOSH DAYAL MATHUR, MA, M.Phil. Ph.D. LLB
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN SANSKRIT,
ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE, DELHI -110007

1. Teaching at St. Stephen's College for the last 36 years (since 1981) ;
2. Research guide to several students at the Department of Sanskrit, University of Delhi ;
3. Several Ph.D.s already submitted and being pursued under his supervision on topics in Indian Philosophy (Darshan) and Hindu law and society (Dharma Shastra);
4. Presented papers at seminars largely on aspects of ancient Hindu law ;
5. Resource person at workshops for school and college teachers ;
6. For more than a decade, actively involved in developing simpler techniques for teaching the Sanskrit language as a part of the Centre for Languages, St. Stephen's College ; designed and administered crash / certificate and diploma level courses in Sanskrit language at the Centre for Languages, St. Stephen's College ;
7. Designed and administered a beginners level course in Sanskrit at the Centre for Historical Studies, Jawahar Lal Nehru University, Delhi in 2014-15 ;
8. Designed and administered a diploma level course in Sanskrit at the Centre for Historical Studies, Jawahar Lal Nehru University, Delhi in 2014-15 ;
9. Designed and administered beginners level courses in Sanskrit for students from the USA, Germany, Indonesia, China, and Lithuania on different occasions at St. Stephen's College.