

Debate Competition on “स्वच्छ भारत ही विकास का आधार है” at Delhi School of Journalism (DSJ) Sponsored by Delhi Public Library on 19 March 2018

The Debate competition on “स्वच्छ भारत ही विकास का आधार है” started with a lot of zest and hustle bustle at 12:00 noon in the Seminar Hall at CIC. A total of 39 students participated in the event and spoke on “Swachh Bharat abhiyan” by either speaking for or against the motion. The event was a bi-lingual competition where students spoke in English or Hindi depending on their preferable language. The participants were allowed a maximum of 4 minutes to speak having 3 minutes of speech time and plus 1 for conclusion.

Dr. Ashok Jyoti, Dr. Prakash Upreti and Dr. Mansvini M. Yogi were the judges of the event. The judges marked the participants on the basis of their content, diction, and fluency.

The event focused on issues related to the nation's cleanliness, healthcare and sanitation respectively. The participants stated facts praising the Swachh Bharat movement and facts criticising it.

The prizes were of Rupees 2500 for the first prize, 2000 for the second, 1500 for the third, and 1000 as the consolation prize respectively. The prizes were given to participants from both the motions separately.

दिल्ली पब्लिक लाइब्रेरी
(संस्कृति मंत्रालय, भारत सरकार का संगठन)

एवं

दिल्ली स्कूल ऑफ जर्नलिज़्म, के संयुक्त तत्वावधान में

“स्वच्छ भारत ही विकास का आधार है”

विषय पर वाद-विवाद प्रतियोगिता

सोमवार, दिनांक 19 मार्च 2018, प्रातः 11:00 बजे

स्थान: दिल्ली स्कूल ऑफ जर्नलिज़्म, यूनिवर्सिटी स्टेडियम, दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय, दिल्ली-110007

Website : www.dpl.gov.in, E-mail : dpl@dpl.gov.in, delhipubliclibrary@gmail.com

The event ended with the prize distribution. Prashant Yadav won the first prize speaking against the motion, and Chitrali won the first prize speaking for the motion. Shivam pathak, Harshita sharma won the second prizes and Garima Singh, Rohit Mittal, Sugandha Garg won the third prizes. Gauri Joshi and Mohammad Ali won the consolation prizes.

(With inputs from Muqsit Nahvi and Anushka Sharma, II Semester BJ)