

DELHI SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM

University of Delhi

Run For Unity: Observation of National Unity Day on 31 October 2017

Today, nearly 100 students of the first batch of Five Year Integrated Program in Journalism of Delhi School of Journalism (DSJ), University of Delhi ran the distance between DSJ and the Vice Chancellor's Office, University of Delhi, as part of 'Run for Unity' on the occasion of 142nd birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. The day is being celebrated as 'Rashtriya Ekta Diwas' (National Unity Day) to commemorate the legacy of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel – The Iron Man of India.

The run was flagged off by Dr. Manasvini M. Yogi, Officer on Special Duty (OSD) of DSJ at 12.15 p.m. in the presence of other faculty members. Every participant sported a "Run For Unity" banner pinned on to their shirts and dresses. All the students helped each other in pinning the banners, showcasing a very simple yet an important example of unity. The students very highly spirited and showcased the feeling of unity in diversity.

Earlier, in the tutorial classes, group discussions on 'Unity in Diversity in India' were conducted and students actively participated in it with their brilliant ideas and observations. The efforts of students and management of Delhi School of Journalism to spread awareness on the importance of unity and celebrating the National Unity Day were fruitful.

(With inputs from Aparajitha Nair, I Semester BJ)