Inauguration of the First Academic Session 2017 -18

The first academic session of the newly constituted Delhi School of Journalism (DSJ) – University of Delhi was inaugurated by Prof. Yogesh Kumar Tyagi honourable Vice Chancellor of the University on 26th September 2017 in an event held at the Seminar Room of Cluster Innovation Centre, housed at the University Sports Stadium - North Campus.

The inaugural ceremony commenced with University Anthem by the students of the Music faculty which was followed by the lighting of the lamp by the dignitaries.

Dr. Manasvini M. Yogi, OSD, Delhi School of Journalism welcomed all the guests, students and the parents. The selfless contributions of Late Dr. Savita Datta, convenor of the Syllabus Committee for Delhi School of Journalism were remembered; and the august gathering paid tribute to Dr. Datta.

Prof. J.P. Dubey, Dean Faculty of Social Sciences, Prof. Devesh Kumar Sinha, Dean of Colleges, Prof. Tarun Das, Registrar and Prof. Maharaj Pandit, Convenor of the Admission Committee addressed the gathering.

Prof. Yogesh Tyagi in his inaugural speech cum orientation lecture emphasized that the University of Delhi established Delhi School of Journalism with a determined vision to make it a globally competent institution for media and journalism education. The syllabus has been designed in such a way that it can give tough competition to the best journalism schools in the world. Prof. Tyagi pointed out the importance of becoming good human being in one's journalism pursuits, rather than thriving for mere professional excellence. He exhorted the students to follow the principle - 'Satyam Shivam Sundaram' ('Truth, Godliness and Beauty') in journalism – an opportunity to serve the truth for the public welfare.

Honourable Vice Chancellor also pressed on the fact that being part of the first batch of Delhi School of Journalism, students are making history and fulfilling their destiny. He also congratulated and thanked the staff and the faculty of Delhi School of Journalism who with their hard work made it possible to smoothly conduct the admission process and begin with the first academic session of Delhi School of Journalism.

The inauguration ceremony was concluded with the National Anthem followed by Refreshments for the guests and the students.
