

Student Guidelines

- The students will regularly meet with the allocated co-supervisors and submit a bi-weekly report of the progress of their work. It is mandatory to submit the progress report.
- Co-supervisors must consult the Hon's director after finalizing the students' topics. ●
- Co-supervisors are advised to do plagiarism checks on dissertations as per guidelines ● In the case of documentary/production work, a requisite form can be obtained from the office, which includes guidelines for conducting interviews and other such work.
- The department will review this policy annually to ensure continued fairness and effectiveness. ●
- There will be a mid-term evaluation of the dissertation work, which is mandatory and compulsory to adhere to.
- The final dissertation presentation, Viva Voice, will tentatively take place in the last week of April.
- There will be an internal evaluation review check of the dissertations as and when required and deemed fit by the Honorable Director, DSJ.
- The Dissertation class will be held on Tuesdays at 01:30PM - 02:30PM.
- The format for the dissertation will be shared, the students have to follow the format both theoretical/text-based dissertation and production/documentaries.
- Date for Mid-term submission - March 27, 2025.
- Date for Final submission - April 25, 2025.

These guidelines ensure a transparent and structured approach to allocating dissertations to co-supervisors while maintaining academic integrity and workload balance. They aim to produce insightful dissertation work that upholds the ethos of the school and university.

The dissertation work may include a thesis report or production/ documentary material
